Adult Summer Reading Program 2019
Sign up for our first Adult Summer Reading program which will focus on literature and activities centered around the program theme: Rediscovering The Civil War. All of our activities will focus on Kinston's local history during that time period. Our program will run from June 2 until July 31. As part of the program, there will also be five “Let’s Talk About It” book talks sponsored by the North Carolina Humanities Council; the theme is America's Greatest Conflict: Novels of the Civil War. The more you participate, the more chances you’ll have to win one of two prize gift baskets.

Adult Summer Reading Schedule
June 2 at 3:00 p.m. - Summer Reading Kickoff - Join us at the Kinston-Lenoir County Public Library as The Gunboat Boys help kick off our Adult Summer Reading Program! Mike Parker and his band specialize in performing Civil War-era music, the perfect way to get into the spirit and prepare for all of the events and programs to come!

June 4 at 2:00 p.m. - Sherman’s March in the Carolinas. Andy Bennett from the CSS Neuse Civil War Interpretive Center will discuss William Tecumseh Sherman’s march through the Carolinas in 1865 and the impact that was made on eastern North Carolina.

June 13 at 4:00 p.m. - Book Talk: The March by E.L. Doctorow. This program is sponsored by the North Carolina Humanities Council as part of the Let’s Talk About It series.

June 18 at 2:00 p.m. - Women of the Civil War. Rachel Kennedy and Zoey Lee of the CSS Neuse Civil War Interpretive Center will discuss women’s roles taking care of soldiers during the Civil War. They will also discuss the role the railroad played in transporting troops and military hospitals.

June 27 at 4:00 p.m. - Book Talk: On the Occasion of My Last Afternoon by Kaye Gibbons. This program is sponsored by the North Carolina Humanities Council as part of the Let’s Talk About It series.

Book Talking
The Kinston-Lenoir County Public Library book club will meet at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 20 to discuss The Storyteller’s Secret by Sejal Bedani. In the wake of three miscarriages and the failure of her marriage, Jaya is desperate to assuage her anguish. She decides to go to India to uncover answers to her family’s past. Intoxicated by the sights, smells, and sounds she experiences, Jaya becomes an eager student of the culture. But it is Ravi—her grandmother’s former servant and trusted confidant—who reveals the resilience, struggles, secret love, and tragic fall of Jaya’s pioneering grandmother during the British occupation. For more information or to get a copy of the book, please call 252-527-7066, ext. 133.

Juneteenth
Juneteenth is a holiday that commemorates the announcement of the abolition of slavery in June 1865. Join us on Saturday, June 15 at 2:00 p.m. at the Kinston-Lenoir County Public Library as we commemorate the 400th anniversary of this important moment in African American history, and the aim is to educate, elevate, and celebrate. Hosted by Brenda Stewart, Juneteenth will showcase dances, drumming, and ceremony, as well as a special presentation by David Dennard, the Director of the African and African American Studies Program at East Carolina University. For more information, please call (252)527-7066 ext. 134.
Teen Literary Film Festival—5:00 p.m.
